LAHSA Funding Opportunities and Process
Request for Statement of Qualifications - RFSQ

• All agencies (except government agencies) must be certified through LAHSA’s RFSQ process to be eligible to apply for funding.
• More info: https://www.lahsa.org/funding
• Contact LAHSA with questions: fundingopportunities@lahsa.org

Benefits of the RFSQ Process

- RFSQ is an open, ongoing solicitation process with a rolling deadline (1st of each month by 2 p.m.)
- Offers technical assistance during the entire RFSQ application process
- Certifies agencies as qualified bidders for LAHSA funding opportunities
- Conducting a threshold review during the RFSQ process reduces an Requests for Proposals (RFP’s) timeline by 4 to 6 weeks
- Agency failures are not announced at a public meeting
Potential Funding Sources Available

- County of Los Angeles General Funds
- County of Los Angeles Measure H Special Fund
- City of Los Angeles General Funds
- City, County and State Emergency Solutions Grant (ESC) funds
- City Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds
- Department of Public Social Services (DPSS) and Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS) funds received from the County
- U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Continuum of Care (CoC) funds
