Definitions

DV – Domestic Violence is a pattern of abusive behavior in any relationship that is used by one partner to gain or maintain power and control over another intimate partner (Department of Justice - DOJ)

IPV – Intimate Partner Violence refers to any behavior within an intimate relationship that causes physical, psychological or sexual harm to those in the relationship; IPV includes acts of physical or sexual violence, emotional (psychological) abuse; controlling behavior, such as isolation, financial abuse, and stalking (World Health Organization)

TIC – Trauma Informed Care is designed to address the consequences of trauma in the individual and to facilitate healing. TIC specific interventions recognize:

- The survivor's need to be respected, informed, connected, and hopeful regarding their own recovery
- The interrelation between trauma and symptoms of trauma such as substance abuse, eating disorders, depression, and anxiety
- The need to work in a collaborative way with survivors, family and friends of the survivor, and other human services agencies in a manner that will empower survivors and consumers

DV – Homeless Services Coalition

Purpose: Working across organizations and systems, we will map out a two-year strategic action plan for the DV-HS Coalition to guide systems-change work to develop an optimal community system to respond to people who experience domestic violence and housing instability and whenever possible to prevent homelessness and chronic homelessness. The strategic action plan will be implemented and further refined during 2017 and 2018.

Safe Housing For Survivors in LA
A Community Scan – February 2017
Kris Billhardt

Findings from the “Safe Housing for Survivors in LA A Community Scan”

It's complicated!

Attention to DV and Sexual Assault as part of formulating a response to homelessness is a relatively recent development

Cuts to TH in the last two NOFA's have impacted the victim service system's capacity to safely house the most vulnerable survivors.

There is no system-wide DV protocol across all CES sites.

- Though there is agreement that CES needs to be made safer for survivors so that they have access to as many resources as possible

RRH is not broadly viewed as a good fit for survivors.

Use of HMIS looms large in victim service provider concerns for survivor safety

Upcoming initiatives bring new opportunities for moving the needle on systems change and service innovation

Questions & Reflections

What do we want to create to prevent and respond to people who experience domestic violence and housing instability and whenever possible to prevent homelessness and chronic homelessness?

What is the case for the status quo?

What is the case for change?
